Awon Golding millinery

Awon Golding Millinery is proud to present the new Autumn Winter 2015 collection, 'Floral Decay'. Transformation is at the heart of this collection - from hot summer months to crisp autumn days; full-bodied blossoms to naked stems; rich pinks and purples to the earthy tones of warm mustard, moss and gold.

Faux fur and rich felts mingle with buttery soft leather and mirror-polished brass to create a luxe-accented collection. Transitional turbans, headbands and berets provide glamour, whilst cosy cossacks, full-brimmed fedoras and earmuffs balance function with style.

Hard-edged metal elements entwine with delicate petals and flowing tulle, giving a strong yet feminine profile. Falling petals, golden dew and sparse branches evoke the essence of the changing seasons and celebrate nature's glorious decay.

Awon Golding is an award-winning London-based milliner who spent an eclectic youth in India, Hong Kong and England. She draws on her multicultural heritage to inspire dynamic headpieces. Working with bold shapes to create dramatic silhouettes, each piece is handcrafted in her London studio incorporating traditional materials and modern techniques.
