London Fashion Week September 2019 was the first international fashion week to open its doors to a wider public, offering dedicated experiences for both a trade and public audience through one dynamic schedule. Following its success, the format returns for London Fashion Week February 2020. Ticket holders will have access to The Store X, 180 Strand, the official hub of London Fashion Week, home to the BFC Catwalk Space; the Positive Fashion Designer Exhibition, the initiative designed to champion industry best practice and encourage future business decisions to create positive change; the DiscoveryLAB: an experiential space where fashion meets art, technology and music.

Alongside the catwalk line-up, London Fashion Week ticket holders will also have access to industry-led talks and panel discussions with key industry figures, who will share unprecedented insight to the fashion industry. September 2019 saw speakers such as Billy Porter, Eva Chen, Henry Holland and IAMDDDB taking part in the event. The line-up of talks and designers taking part in the Positive Fashion Designer Exhibition will be announced at a later stage. Ticket holders will receive a complimentary drink and tote bag.

The generosity and commitment of our sponsors, suppliers and supporters is more vital than ever. Please help us by acknowledging their support for London Fashion Week February 2020: Official Partners: Evening Standard, JD.COM, INC., LAVAZZA, LetsBab, The Store X, Mercedes-Benz, The May Fair Hotel, TONI&GUY and Official Suppliers: Bags of Ethics, DHL, Fashion and Beauty Monitor, Getty Images, Launchmetrics and S by sloggi and our Official Supporters: The Department for International Trade, The European Regional Development Fund and The Mayor of London.

ABOUT BRITISH FASHION COUNCIL

The British Fashion Council (BFC) was set up in 1983 to promote British fashion internationally and co-ordinate this promotion through fashion weeks, exhibitions and showcasing events. The BFC now supports designers beginning at college level and extending to talent identification, business support and showcasing schemes to help British designer businesses develop their profiles and business globally and promote British fashion and its influential role in Britain and London. The BFC Colleges Council offers support to students through the BFC Foundation (Registered Charity Number: 1185152), BA and MA scholarships, links with industry through design competitions and Graduate Preview Day. Talent identification and business support schemes include BFC/Vogue Designer Fashion Fund, BFC/GQ Designer Menswear Fund supported by JD.com, Inc. and NEWGEN which includes womenswear, menswear and accessories. The BFC also runs and owns the BFC Fashion Trust charity. Showcasing initiatives and events include London Fashion Week, London Fashion Week Men's, LONDON show ROOMS, International Fashion Showcase and the annual celebration of creativity and innovation in the fashion industry: The Fashion Awards.

ABOUT Temperley London

Alice Temperley MBE founded her eponymous label, Temperley London in 2000, a year after graduating from the Royal College of Art. Alice continues to head up the creative direction of this British, independent brand. The core business focuses on women's ready-to-wear collections, which have evolved to offer a comprehensive range of daywear, cocktail and eveningwear. Temperley Bridal, which launched in 2006 with two collections a year, is defined by ethereal, timeless silhouettes and is inspired by the romance and decadence of a bygone era. Temperley Bridal offers made-to-order, bespoke and ready-to-wear styles. In 2018 Temperley London was awarded the Butterfly Mark by Positive Luxury for a commitment to responsible practices across innovation, social good, environment, philanthropy, and governance. Alice is a member of the British Fashion Council Advisory Board and enjoys speaking at key industry events. She is also involved with several charitable organisations, including recently becoming Ambassador for Women for Women International. Alice was awarded an MBE in 2011 for services to the Fashion Industry.

ABOUT DE LA VALI

Drawn on their Ibizan heritage, founders of De La Vali, Jana Sascha Haveman and Laura Castro are inspired by the free spirited and bohemian essence of the island. The collections are bold and empowering, yet feminine and sensual.
