LILITH

The initiation of a persons identity starts with those that came before them but our identities are forged later on, guided by our own hand. The beginings of my own identity started with a lot of instability and confusion that lead me to seek out my own matriarch idols but they werent all people like you and I. It is easy to project on the world around you so for this pejoct I took inspiration from Nature, Animals, Magic and most importantly Women.

PRE-COLLECTION

A look into what 2070 could hold for humanity as a world where human labour is no longer needed and this new generation chase the party creating their own lifestyle. This collection explores some of the best part of the 1970 and amounts to an amalgamation of protected, psychedelic-neo-party-girls.
