was inspired lil Kim in the 90s and her life back then.
The defining image of Lil* Kim*s career is a portrait of her squatting in a leopard-print bikini, an
shoot for Hard Core.
Her mentor who is the Notorious B.I.G. strongly had an influence on lil Kim*s career. However, getting to know lil Kim also involves her place of birth.

I went in depth with the research of lil Kim*s home town ... BROOKLYN NY.
The streets on Brooklyn consisted of a variety of graffiti work... some neatly drawn, while others are abstract and messy.
Which inspired my graffiti work and experimenting and developing graffiti prints on clothes

After researching into her Birth place
I then read into her pass relationships
Which included
Abuse, drugs and sex
Her song lyrics about Her injustice and mentor fatal death Were included in my Print work.

Here I have recreated similar hairstyles and scandalous clothing that are similar to those she wore in the

She is wild, daring Free spirited.
She loves to shop at thrift stores
And dresses to build her own confidence On how she dresses.
She's a party girl, very social
And always thinking of what to do next to make sure her life
She listens to rap
Music and r&b on the radio. She lives close to the city And commutes on trains
She loves moving around via public transport.
