

When I was a child
 me and my mum found a berry bush. I decided I wanted to pick them
 but I had no bag.
 we used my yellow rain
 hat to hold all the berries. when we were done I saw my favourite rain hat was all stained inside

you taught me how to view the world,
 and now everywhere
 I go I see you

“For the diddlum day
Day diddle dum di!
Day diddle diddle dum day!”

We would observe the flowers & birds and she would have so much to tell me about them.

thins her eternal presence through these memories
