

FRASER BURNSIDE.

ARE YOU READY DARLING?

A tongue-in-cheek interpretation of a British public-school boy. Drawing on extensive research including education, aristocratic behaviour, tradition and silver spoon service as well as my own personal Scottish heritage. The concept captures the public-school sector in a refreshingly satirical lens. The concept exposes ridiculous characters for who they really are, in an environment which takes itself too seriously.

So I went to posh school,
why would I deny it?
