

VOTES
FOR WOMEN

The suffragette movement was the first women's movement of its kind to achieve their beliefs through violence.

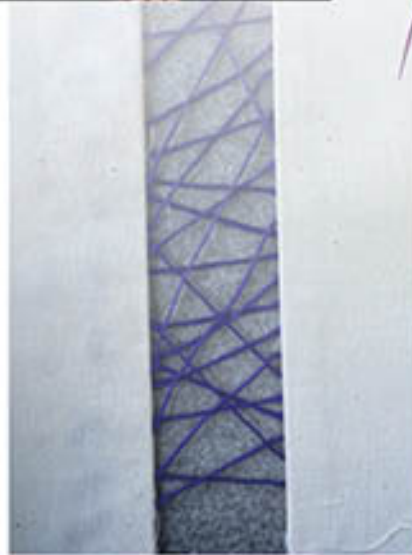

Violence turned out to be the only acts that got people to listen. Which led to a long trail of violent events from burning down churches to smashing windows in Oxford Street.

VOTES
FOR WOMEN

Exploring different forms of restricting trousers through toiling ideas.

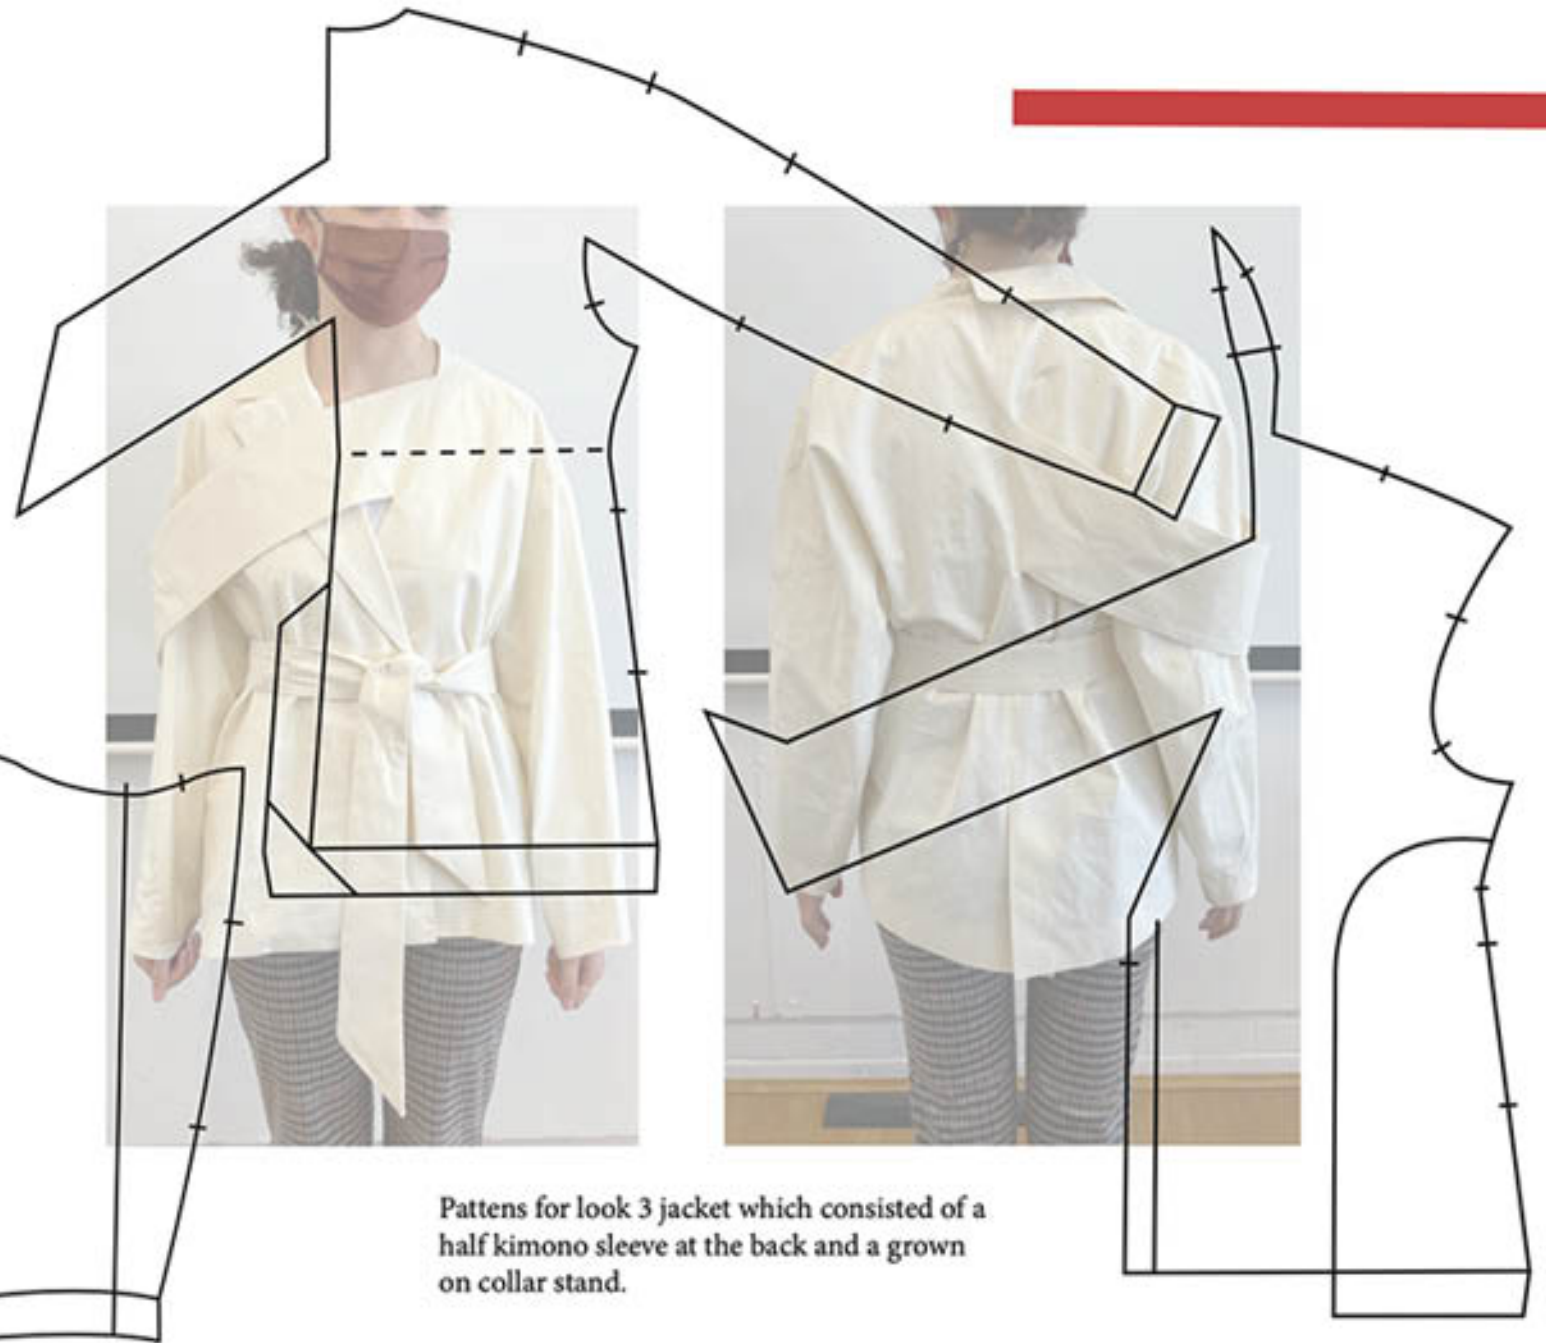

Making an object from a non fashion material informed by my research . I created accessories from barbed wire such as a bag and eye mask

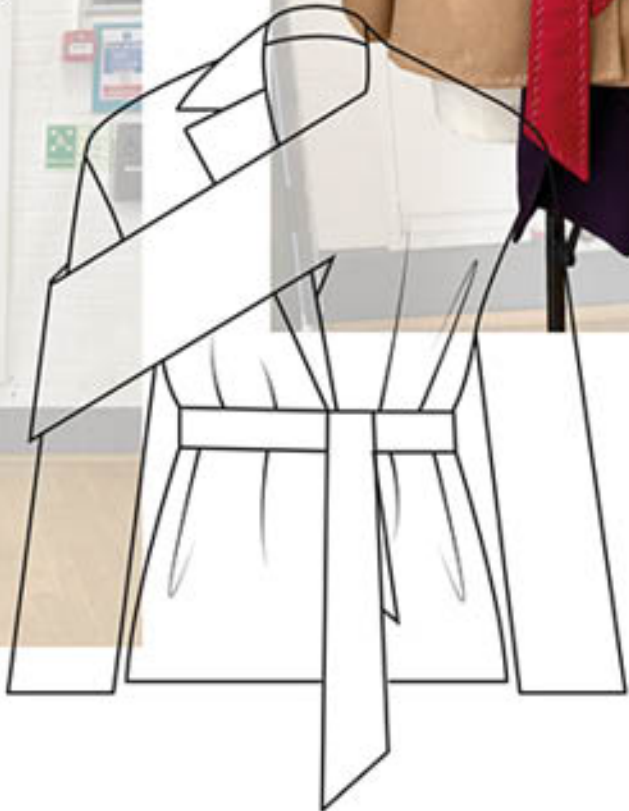

Exploring different designs inspired by the manipulation and silhouette created from elastic.

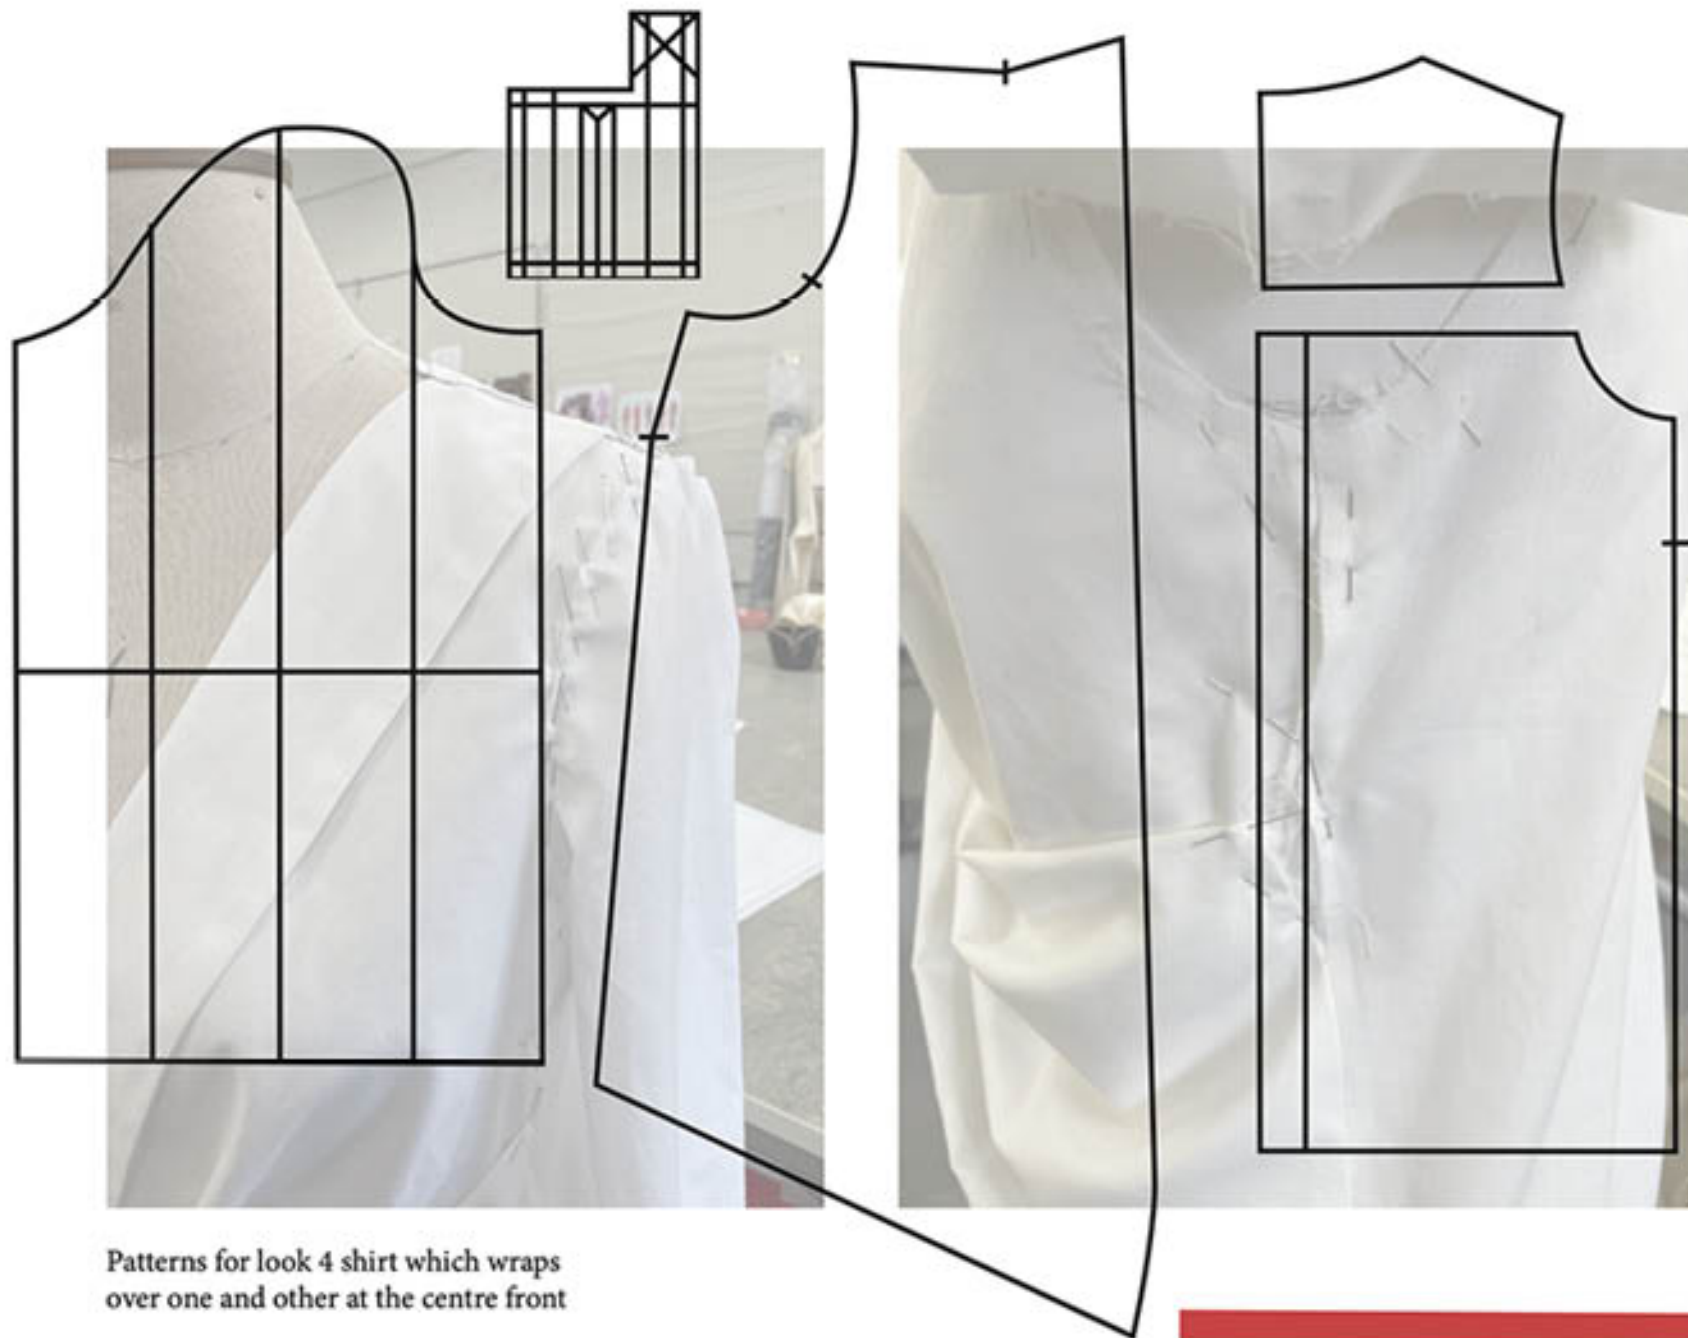

Patterns for look 3 jacket which consisted of a half kimono sleeve at the back and a grown on collar stand.

Working process and final outcome of look 3 constructed in caramel double face wool contrasting with a warm red lambswool belt.

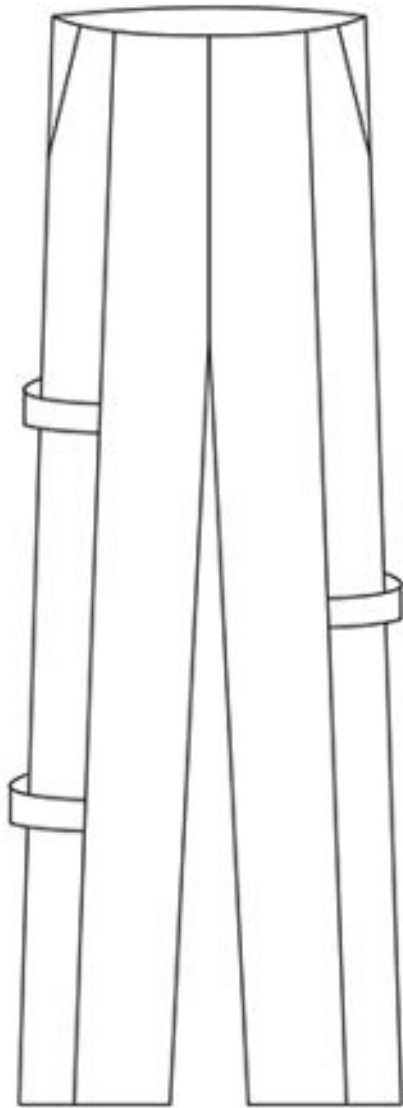

Patterns for look 4 shirt which wraps over one and other at the centre front

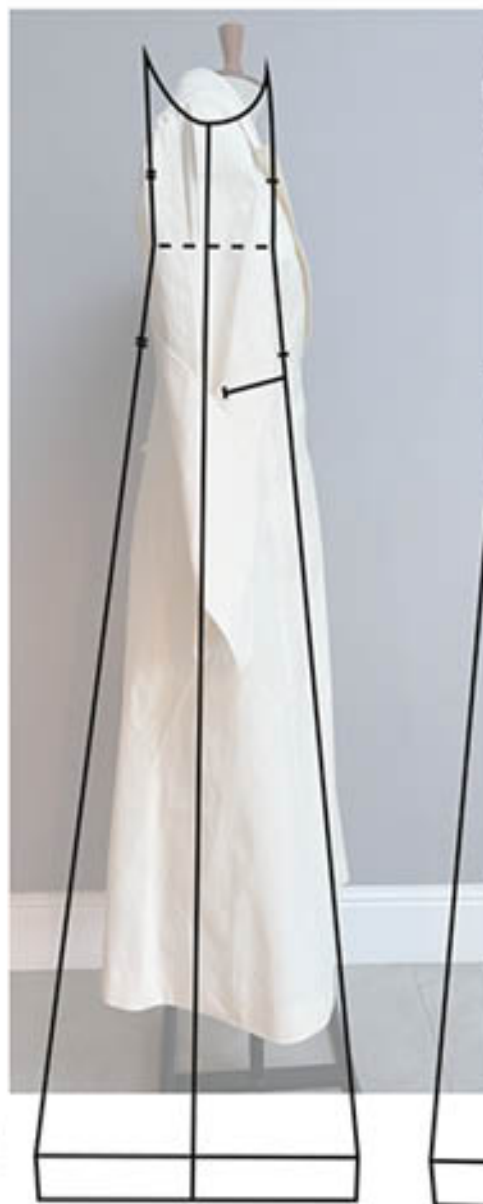

Working process and final outcome of look 5 constructed in an aubergine polyester

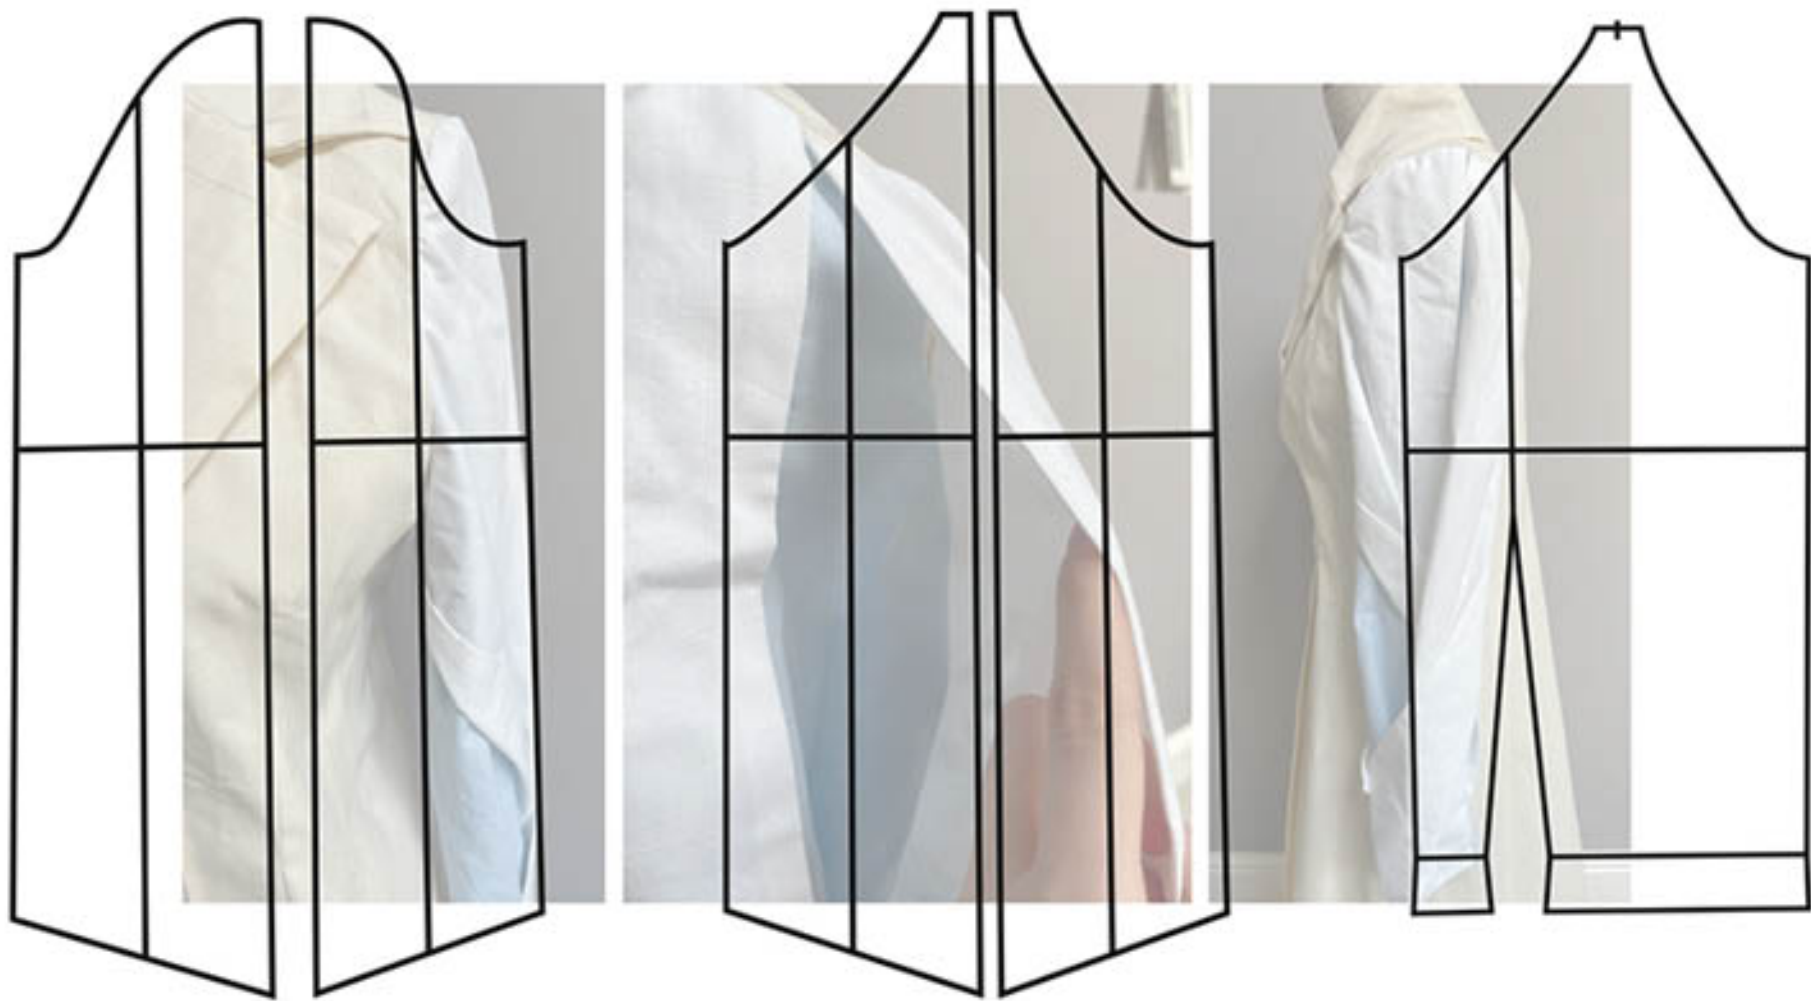

Working process and final outcome of look 3 trousers constructed in a warm red lambswool

These are the body pieces for look 5 coat with a slight flare on the panels to add more movement

Patterns for the sleeve of this coat which consist of three layers and on full sleeve head to avoid to much bulk

Outcome of look 5 which has been constructed from a red Calvary wool twill.