WOMEN FED
Feminist activists staged a counter protest against the group on Thursday morning by displaying placards with pro-choice messages.
The protest was held during morning rush hour in the heart of London's financial district. It was led by the group 'The Red Dress Project' and featured a variety of colorful, ruffled dresses. The protesters were seen holding placards with various messages, including 'WOMEN FED' and 'MY CHOICE'. The police were seen standing by, and the protesters were seen painting the town red with their own menstrual blood.
