

Kwun Chun Chan Final Project

A project basic on a documentary "Father Soldier Son" and my first-hand research around my daily life. Trying to express the emotion of the son in the documentary and the feeling of 'normal' life changed dramatically because of war, politics and any other family reasons.

Yo! There, that's my dad m

Brian Eisch has suffered serious loss. Sargent First Class Eisch was badly wounded by machine gunfire during an Army deployment to northern Afghanistan, and returned home to lose his son, Joey Eisch, in a tragic accident.

is following in his dad's footsteps and joined the U.S. Army.

but gonna probably have for the rest of his life

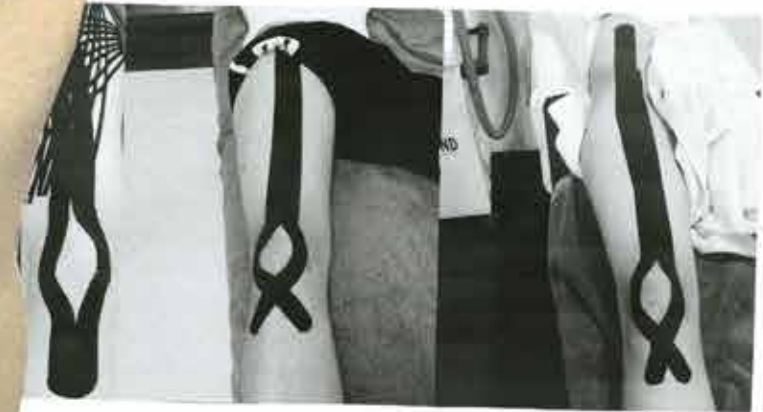

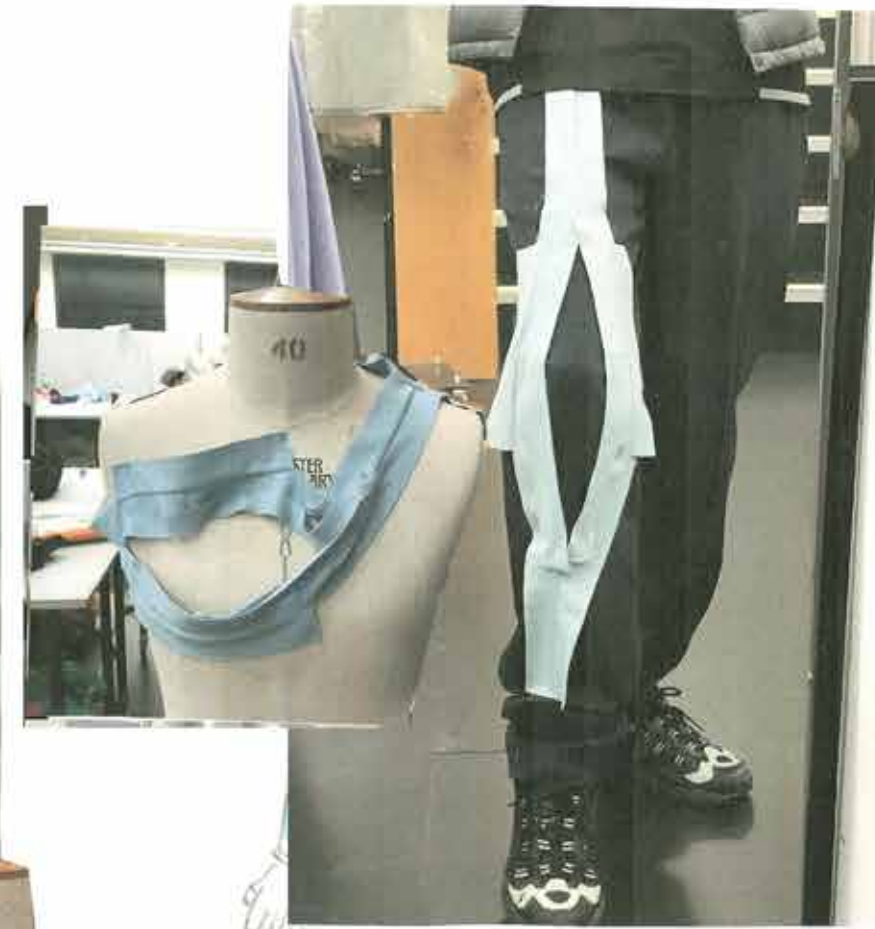

*blocks
like presentation*

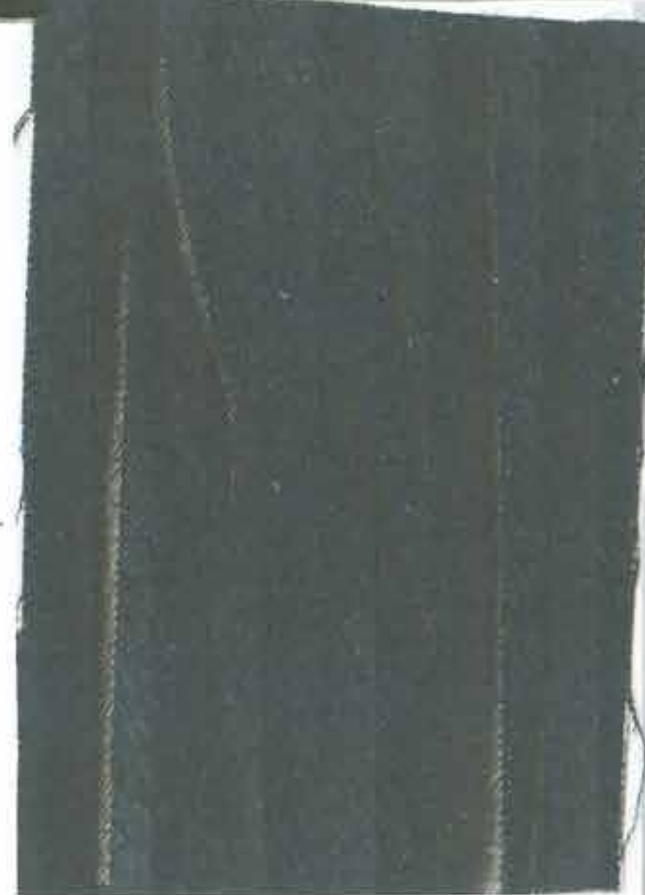

3 layer of sleeve

From the hoodie.

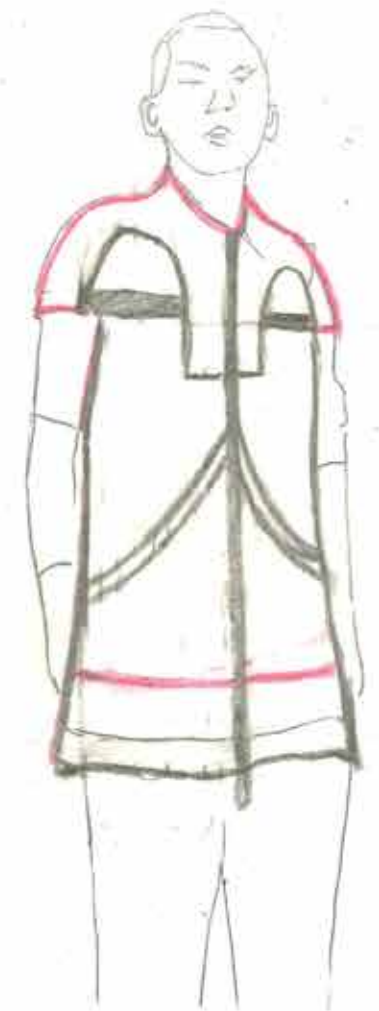

Garment vinyl on denim.

Delicate construction of vinyl.

print

This seam unlike.

Initial line up

Keep feet out

Sleeves may change like this.

Revisions Due to the upper part spaced.

Need to sample the collar

Front

Back

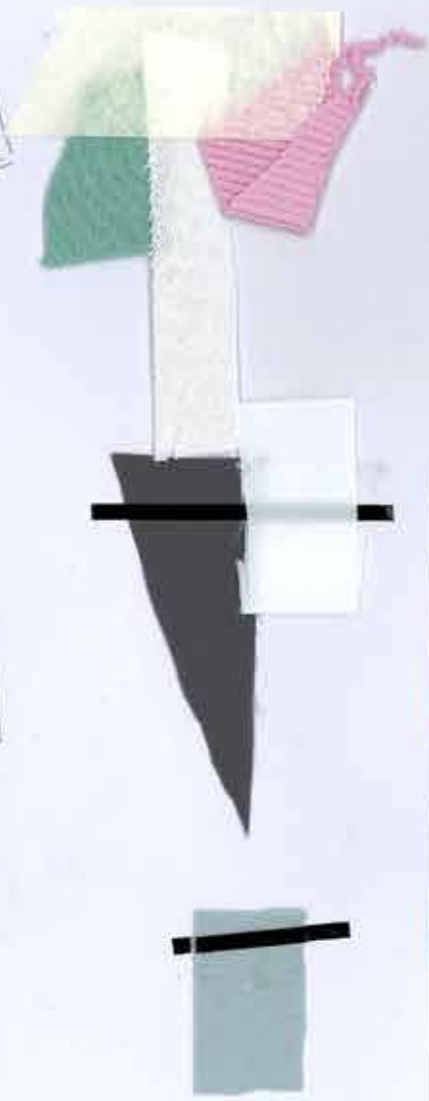

Future sample 1

Look 2.

Back

Final Looks
credit Richard Kelly

